

SENATOR FOWLER: So, you will not reintroduce it?

SENATOR VENDITTE: I think the resolution as it now stands is perfectly valid in the eyes of Congress and will be...

SENATOR FOWLER: I didn't ask you that. Just are you going to reintroduce it next year?

SENATOR VENDITTE: Are you going to be here next year, Senator Fowler?

SENATOR FOWLER: Oh, I'll be here.

SENATOR VENDITTE: I don't know, Senator Fowler. I certainly would think that...

SENATOR FOWLER: That is fine, that is fine. Okay. I think actually that we can see that this will come back around. It keeps cropping up. We keep wanting to do it at the head and at the front sort of issue that certain people want to make, it is the biggest issue, the only issue really I think that this legislature considers in certain eyes, this is the reason. I would move to return it. It is going to be back next year, it really doesn't make much difference, does it? I mean we could put it on Select File this year passing it this year won't keep it from coming back. So, why not return it for this amendment?

PRESIDENT: Senator Marsh calls for the question. The question is shall debate now cease. Record your vote. There are five seconds. Record.

CLERK: 26 ayes, no nays on the....to cease debate, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The question now is shall the bill be returned for Senator Fowler's amendment. Record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 7 ayes, 26 nays to return to Select File, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Motion fails. Senator Lewis, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Mr. President, would it be in order to set a time certain for adjournment?

PRESIDENT: Yes.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I move we adjourn sine die at 5:30.

PRESIDENT: That motion is out of order.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I'm sorry, I thought that you said it would be.

PRESIDENT: Well 12:00 is in order. But, you can't move to a time certain now.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I'm saying that we can't move to a time certain now for the adjournment time tonight?

PRESIDENT: No. Do you have further motions?
